Rochester, N. Y.
Sept. 21, 1921

Dear Madam:

Bernard H. Bolt was wounded in the fighting at Cantigny, France May 28, 1918 and died in a hospital May 29, 1918. He had been buried in France until Apr. 1921 when his body was returned to this country and buried at Fountain Hill Cemetery at Bethlehem, Pa.

He was connected with Co. K. 28th Infantry at the time of his death.

Hoping this information will prove satisfactory I remain

Very truly yours.

Wm. H. Bolt.
