A Tribute to Curry H. Jackson by his Mother.

Not on the field of action where Francis lillies blow.
Not on the line of battle where ebbing life blood flowed not when the slinking U-boats on loaded transports sped but none the less for freedom he nobly gave his life & died

He gained no cross of honor his courage was untried but in the giving of his youth his soul was glorified he held the torch of justice high above the floods of wrong now the comrades who survive him may God bless them along life road

His Star within our servis Flag shall gleam forever bright for surely as in battles roar he fell in the cause of right he did his duty he did his best brave noble hero lad he was a true & loyal Son a Soldier for Uncle Sam

Mrs H. R Jackson

Please return as I want to keep it.
Resft.