INTERNSHIP AT THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

ESBCO RESEARCH ROOM INTERNSHIP

The Alabama Department of Archive and History is seeking undergraduate and graduate student applicants for a summer 2026 internship in the EBSCO Research Room. This project internship will consist of working closely with Reference staff on different projects over the course of the internship. These projects will include handling archival material, scanning, indexing, assisting in creating presentations, researching, and interpreting primary source material. The internship will provide the intern with knowledge of how to properly handle and care for archival material. Students with an interest in research, reference work, and archival materials are encouraged to apply. Applicants need to be comfortable working with the public and original materials. Applicants will need to be able to bend, reach, and lift boxes weighing up to 40 pounds.

Reference staff will provide the candidate with professional training and supervision. Applicants are not required to have previous public history or archival field experience. It is preferred for applicants to be interested in history, public history, library science, archival studies, or related topics, however it is not required.
