

ALABAMA CONSTITUTION WORD SEARCH

T L D B E N E A J Q C E A S B
 Y N K E W Q R T E U O V L T B
 L U E A L T U I O Y N I A H I
 J O L M I E R A R V S T B G B
 W D T C D E G O L Y T U A I T
 A A L I K N T A L B I C M R W
 G E R L P I E U T X T E A X X
 C I A V R A U M S E U X G D T
 E W E R G E C N A D T E E R F
 P T E E V I T A L S I G E L B
 O T J U D I C I A L O X N X I
 G Z F N O I T C E S N G G J L
 I I Z O Y G E C X R B K S R L
 K R E V L F X U K Z P S V J U
 S T A T E H S C V W E N B R I

Directions: Find and circle the words listed below.

Alabama

Legislative

Equal

Constitution

Executive

Free

Amendment

Judicial

Law

Article

Capitol

Vote

Section

Territory

Delegate

Bill

State

Walker

Veto

Rights

Bibb

Visit our website at <http://www.archives.alabama.gov>

Alabama Constitution Fun Facts

- ❖ Alabama has had six constitutions.
- ❖ The Alabama Territory was established on March 3, 1817 by the act that also created the state of Mississippi.
- ❖ 60,000 people were needed to become a state; Alabama recognized 67,594 people.
- ❖ The first Constitutional Convention met in Huntsville, Alabama in July, 1819 in Walker Allen's Cabinet Shop.
- ❖ Written on 26 sheets of parchment, the constitution was attached by gross grain silk ribbon and sealing wax. The original was kept by the Secretary of State until it was turned over to the Alabama Department of Archives and History.
- ❖ The signers of the Alabama Constitution were eighteen lawyers, four doctors, four planters, two ministers, one merchant, and one surveyor. From this group of men came one United States vice president, six United States senators, six Alabama Supreme Court justices, and six Alabama governors.
- ❖ On December 14, 1819 Alabama became the 22nd state in the Union. James Monroe, the fifth president of the United States, signed into law a resolution which admitted Alabama into the union.
- ❖ The first state constitution served Alabama for 42 years. On January 7, 1861 the convention met in Montgomery to discuss secession. The constitution was changed to reflect this.
- ❖ In 1867 under Governor Parsons, white and African-American delegates gathered to write a nationally recognized constitution.
- ❖ The current Alabama Constitution (1901) is one of the longest in the United States, having over 100,000 words and 706 amendments.

