

KWANZAA CELEBRATION

"Kwanzaa" is from the Swahili word for "first fruits." Founded in the U.S. in 1966, the holiday celebrates the African values shown on the candles. A green, black, or red candle is lit each day. This holiday is celebrated from December 26 to January 1.

