#132

Daguerreotypes (2) (2 ¾ x 3 ¼ – sixth-plate)

Condition of images: Good

Condition of case: Good; Sarah Ann image loose

Both plates have the following handwritten on the back: “Taken in Tuscaloosa Ala in the year 1840 by Dr Harrington & Prof Barnard of the University of Alabama” Sarah Ann Martin’s ends with: “& the first daguerreotype ever taken in Tuscaloosa.” Joshua L. Martin’s says, “and was among the first taken in the city.” The handwriting is the same on each plate and identifies him as “Gov. Joshua L. Martin” which he did not become until 1845. According to the accession register (July 17, 1953), the handwriting on the back of the daguerreotype is Gov. Martin’s. However, the handwriting does not match Gov. Martin’s handwriting in a letter to his wife in 1854, but it could be her handwriting. On the mat surrounding his photo is printed, “Daguerreotype by W. H. Harrington.” LPP00957 (both images in case); LPP00958 (Joshua L. Martin, cropped / enhanced); LPP00959 (Sarah A.
