6. Remarks on Ancestry. Give here any and all facts possible in reference to your parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, etc., not included in the foregoing, as where they lived, offices held, Revolutionary or other war service; what country the family came from to America, where first settled, county and State; always giving full names (if possible) and never referring to an ancestor simply as such without giving the name. It is desirable to include every fact possible, and to that end the full and exact record from old Bibles should be appended on separate sheets of this size, thus preserving the facts from loss:

I should have written sooner but have been trying to get more dates but have failed on account of sickness. Sam was killed in France. He was raised from 2 1/2 yrs of age by his grandparents at Winfield where he made his home until he enlisted. His grandmother Laura Virginia Trull is still living and is 79 yrs old. I enclose the only picture I have. Mrs. M. H. Hill Carby Hill
