Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 16, 1921.

Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen,

State Capitol, Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Mrs. Owen:

In looking over the statement I left with you this morning relating to genealogy of Clayton family, I find that there are two errors, as follows:

a. Under number 6, it is stated that Thomas, with his family, moved from Hancock County to Craven County, N. C., in 1808, and from there to Pulaski County, Ga., in 1816. This should be as follows: "Thomas, with his family, moved from Craven County, North Carolina, to Hancock County, Georgia, in 1808, and from there to Pulaski County, Georgia, in 1816".

b. Under number 7, it is stated it is stated that Nelson was a member of the Legislature of Alabama. This is incorrect. He was a member of the Legislature of Georgia and not of Alabama.

If you will kinly put this letter with the other matter I gave you, it will come to your attention when you are ready to write the history.

Respectfully,

Lee J. Clayton.
