

In reply address not the signer of this letter, but Bureau of Navigation,
Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
Refer to No. 17045-14

N-327-McG-HRP

NAVY DEPARTMENT
BUREAU OF NAVIGATION

WASHINGTON, D. C.
27 October 1921

Checked NAB ✓

Madam:

In reply to your communication dated September 29, 1921, you are informed the Bureau's records show the record of naval service of Andrew Pace Haynes as follows:

1895	Apr	5	Born in Oxford, Ala.
1914	June	13	Appointed a Midshipman from Alabama, 4th Dist.
1915	June	5	Joined "WISCONSIN"
	Sept	8	Cruise completed
1916	June	3	Joined "WISCONSIN"
	Aug	28	Cruise completed
1917	June	20	Det (Naval Academy) and to the "YORKTOWN"
			Det. 28 June and rept. 6 July.
	June	29	Ensign
	June	30	Commissioned, regular, from June 29, 1917.
	Sept	6	Accepted appointment and executed Oath of Office, this date.
	Oct	15	Lieutenant (jg) (T)
	Dec	24	Temporarily appointed from Oct. 15, 1917. (Act of May 22, 1917)
1918	Feb	25	Accepted appointment and executed Oath of Office.
	Apr	2	Det. (YORKTOWN) and to Great Lakes, Ill., for duty in connection with training. Det. Apr. 25, and rept. May 2.
	July	1	Lieutenant (T)
	Sept	6	Tempo appointed from July 1, 1918. (Act of May 22, 1917)
	Sept	12	Member of G.C.M., to convene at Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., Sept. 19, 1918.
	Sept	30	Admitted treatment U.S. Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Ill. Sept. 22.
	Sept	30	Died in Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Ill., this date of pneumonia.

By direction of Chief of Bureau.

Very respectfully,

H. H. Grosby
Lieutenant Commander, U.S.N.

Mrs. Marie B. Owen, Director,
State of Alabama,
Department of Archives and History,
Montgomery, Ala.