

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY RELIEF
BUREAU OF CAMP SERVICEFIELD DIRECTOR G. L. Hawkins.

July 28, 1918

CAMP Shelby, Miss.

REPORT NO. ....

Mrs. W. R. Jackson,
4121 South Park St.,
Birmingham, Ala.

My dear Mrs. Jackson:-

At this moment of your grief there is nothing that we can say to comfort you except to say that you have the sincerest sympathy of the American Red Cross. Your son was a fine man, beloved by his fellows in the One Hundred and Fiftieth, and will be sadly missed by them. In time to come, you will learn to be very proud of the fact that your boy gave his life in the finest kind of service. He did not get to the front but his will was as fine as that of those who will actually meet the Germans and the example of patriotism that he gave will put his name always on the roll of those gave all for their country.

Sincerely yours,

Associate Field Director.
