

Obituary

GEORGE L. McCUE.

The body of George L. McCue, 21, member of the Seventeenth cavalry, U. S. army, who died Sunday morning in Douglas, Arizona, will reach the city some time tomorrow. The cause of death is unknown by relatives in Montgomery. The first intimation that Mr. McCue was ill was contained in a telegram last Friday stating that he was sick, which was followed by one Thursday which reported his condition as unchanged.

Sunday morning advices of his death were received.

Young McCue was an exemplary soldier and a devoted son. Surviving relatives are his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McCue, an elder brother, Jim McCue; three sisters, Mildred, Marjorie and Catherine McCue, all of this city; an aunt, Miss Winnie Meehan, also of this city.

The funeral will probably be from the family residence, 218 South Jackson street, announcement of which will be made later.
