THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY PRESENTS ROOTS, LEAVES, & BRANCHES: GROWING YOUR FAMILY HISTORY A ONE-DAY GENEALOGY WORKSHOP FOR ALL LEVELS

On Saturday, July 26th, join expert genealogist Nancy Dupree for a one-day genealogy workshop at the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH). This course will equip participants of all research levels with valuable skills and information to navigate the oftentimes overwhelming world of genealogical research.

Regardless if you are just beginning to explore your family's history or if you are already discovering your family tree, this course will provide tools and tips to craft an effective research plan. It will also serve as a platform to ask specific questions about your individual research. Dupree will devote special attention to the wide variety of resources available both online and in the ADAH's extensive collections. Participants will learn how to best use the Archives' Research Room and its resources, including free access to ancestry.com and Fold3.

The workshop will be held at the ADAH's Joseph M. Farley Alabama Power Auditorium from 9 am to 3 pm. The registration fee for the general public is $35. This covers the cost of materials, refreshments, and a box lunch. Friends of the Alabama Archives members can register at a discounted rate of $30.
