Use Agreement
Images, Videos, and Audio Material

Conditions and Guidelines:

1. All materials provided remain the property of the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH), and may not be published, exhibited, broadcast, posted on the Internet, sold, traded, shared, or deposited with another library or archives, or used in any way not specified in this agreement without the written permission of ADAH.
2. Permission must be requested using this form. ADAH does not sign outside permission forms.
3. Permission is granted for one-time use only. Permission is not exclusive and is not transferable. Provided material may be used by the publisher for promotional purpose.
4. Material may not be substantially altered other than copying or enhancement of definition. Elements such as people, signs, or any other part of the images may not be digitally removed or added. The perspective or depth of the image may not be digitally altered. Images may not be reversed. Cropping and/or enlargement to enhance portions of the image is permissible.
5. Material should not be presented or described in any way that does not accurately describe its content, time period, or geographic location.
6. Images may not be posted on websites at resolutions higher than 72 dpi.
7. The ADAH does not claim to control all rights of reproduction for all materials in its collections. The publishing party assumes all responsibility for clearing reproduction rights and for compliance with the U.S. Copyright Code.
8. The publishing party assumes full responsibility for the use of the material and conformity to the laws of defamation and privacy, and holds harmless the Alabama Department of Archives & History from any claims arising as a result of the use of the material.
9. One copy of the work including the material must be donated to the ADAH. If the work contains no more than two images from the ADAH, proofs or tearsheets of the title page and page(s) showing the items used and credit line will satisfy this requirement. In the case of films, the publisher must send still photographs or copies of the title frame and the frame showing the credits. In the case of websites or CDs, the publisher must send images of the pages(s) showing the material and credit line. In the case of compact discs, the publisher agrees to send a copy of the CD or images of the CD title and tracks with credit line.
10. The following credit line must be included for each item reproduced (for films, a credit line in the closing credits will suffice): Alabama Department of Archives and History.
11. There is a $100 reproduction rights fee for commercial use of an image. There is no charge for not-for-profit or educational use.
