

Then and Now; Famous Faces

Age range: Kindergarten to 2nd grade Student Limit: 2 classes

Theme: Alabamians of long ago, lived, worked, struggled, and overcame obstacles to both perform everyday tasks and accomplish great feats.

Objective: Children will learn about the objects and people of Alabama's past through hands-on activity.

Method: 3 part program; 15 minutes each section.

- Inside Our Houses (Then and Now)
- What it Used To Be (Then and Now)
- Famous Alabamians

Addresses Alabama Course of Study:
Social Studies Standards, 2004

Kindergarten:

2. Compare families of today with families of the past in relation to work, home, and school.

First grade:

1. Identify past and present forms of communication, apparel, technology, and recreation.

Second grade:

1. Compare features of modern-day living to those of the past.

2. Identify past and present contributions of a variety of individuals who have overcome difficulties or obstacles to achieve goals.