

Share Your Story

The Archives has launched a new initiative to record and preserve oral history interviews about life in twentieth-century Alabama. We are especially interested in stories about military service, integration in schools and the workplace, social and political change, and daily life. No story is too big or too small!

This brief questionnaire is designed to help the interview team better prepare for your session.

Name

Date and Place of Birth

Mailing Address

E-Mail Address

Phone Number

Preferred Contact
Method

Mail
E-Mail
Phone

Where in Alabama have you lived and worked?

Did you attend school in Alabama? If so, what school(s) did you attend and when did you graduate?

Please provide a brief overview of your occupational history:

Which of the following subjects would you like to discuss? Check all that apply.

Military service

Integration of school/workplace

Changing roles of women

Alabama politics

Social and political change

Alabama during the Vietnam War

Daily life in Alabama

Other (Describe)

Tell us a bit more about the topic(s) which you would like to discuss. This will help us ask better questions as we prepare for your session.

How did the event(s) you describe above affect your life?

Is there anything else you would like to share?

Are you willing and/or physically capable of traveling to Montgomery for your interview session?

Yes

No

Please check all that apply:

I have family members/friends who would also be interested in being interviewed and am willing to provide you with their contact information.

I have photographs/documents/other material I would like to consider donating to the Archives.

I would like more information on the Archives. Please add me to your subscriber list.

Thank you for your time. If you have any further questions, please contact the project coordinators:

Haley Aaron (334) 353-3425 haley.aaron@archives.alabama.gov

Scotty E. Kirkland (334) 353-2570 scotty.kirkland@archives.alabama.gov

Please return questionnaire to:
Oral History Initiative
Alabama Dept. of Archives and History
Post Office Box 300100
Montgomery, Alabama 33130