A 'BONUS' ARCHITREATS: FOOD FOR THOUGHT PRESENTATION
*THE SOUTH'S NEW RACIAL POLITICS: INSIDE THE RACE GAME
OF SOUTHERN HISTORY* BY GLEN BROWDER
AT THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Join us at noon on Thursday, July 9, as former congressman Glen Browder shares highlights from his new book, The South's New Racial Politics: Inside the Race Game of Southern History. This 'Bonus' ArchiTreats: Food for Thought presentation will be held at the Alabama Department of Archives and History.

The South's New Racial Politics: Inside the Race Game of Southern History explores how blacks and whites in today's South engage in the political process. Based on his own experiences and careful study, Glen Browder provides an analysis of biracial leadership in the modern-day South. The presentation will be followed by a book signing. Books will be available for purchase by the publisher, NewSouth Books.

Dr. Glen Browder is professor emeritus of American Democracy at Jacksonville State University in Alabama. He served as U.S. congressman, Alabama secretary of state, and Alabama legislator.

This 'Bonus' ArchiTreats presentation is in addition to the regular series of third-Thursday free lectures presented by the Alabama Department of Archives and History. The public is invited to bring a sack lunch and enjoy a bit of Alabama history. Coffee and tea will be provided by the Friends of the Alabama Archives. For more information, call (334) 353-4712.
