ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY PRESENTS THE 2013 SCHEDULE OF ARCHITREATS: FOOD FOR THOUGHT PROGRAMS

ArchiTreats: Food for Thought begins another year of informative talks on Alabama history at the Alabama Department of Archives and History. Many of the programs in 2013 highlight the Becoming Alabama initiative (*). For the next several years, we will commemorate and study significant events in our state and national history relating to the War of 1812 and Creek Indian War, the Civil War, and the Civil Rights movement as part of the Becoming Alabama initiative commemorations. Join us, at noon, on the third Thursday of each month as we reflect, remember, and preserve Alabama's fascinating past.

January 17            *"Segregation Forever": The Speech that Launched George Wallace's National Career** by Dan Carter

Please Note: The February talk will be held on the fourth Thursday (Feb.28) rather than the original date due to a scheduling conflict. Thanks

February 28            *The Civil Rights World in Alabama, 1961-1963: Reflections** by Fred D. Gray
March 21                The Rise and Fall of Alabama's Textile Industry by David Seagraves
April 18                *Streight's Raid and The Making of a Confederate Heroine** by Keith S. Hebert
May 16                 Longleaf Pine: The Tree That Made Alabama by Bill Finch
June 20                *The Emancipation Proclamation in Wartime Alabama, 1863** by John Kvach
July 18                 Cars Fell on Alabama: The Automotive Industry Comes to Alabama by Bill Taylor
August 15             *White Paths, Red Paths: Fort Mims and the Alabama Frontier** by Greg Waselkov
September 19        *While the World Watched: A Birmingham Bombing Survivor Remembers**
by Carolyn M. McKinstry
October 17            *Alabama and the War of 1812** by Jeanne & David Heidler
November 21        Diamonds in the Rough: A History of Alabama's Cahaba Coal Field by James S. Day
December 19        Alabama's Got the Boll Weevil Blues by James C. Giesen

The 2013 ArchiTreats series is made possible by the Friends of the Alabama Archives and is co-sponsored by the Alabama Humanities Foundation, state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The public is invited to bring a sack lunch and enjoy a bit of Alabama history.
