TERMS & CONDITIONS

If material is temporarily deposited at the ADAH for review, I understand that the following terms and conditions will apply:

1. The ADAH will give to material left in its custody the same handling and care provided to similar property of its own, but it assumes no additional responsibilities or liabilities regarding such material.
2. Insurance will not be carried on materials left in custody. The Temporary Custody Receipt shall constitute a release and waiver of the ADAH, its employees, officers, and agents of any liability in connection with the property during evaluation or in transit, except for clearly negligent conduct.
3. The material may be photographed and examined by the ADAH for its own purposes, but will not be restored, treated, or otherwise altered unless immediate conservation risk mitigation measures are required to protect our staff or collections.
4. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, material deposited for temporary review shall remain in the ADAH’s custody for a limited period not to exceed ninety (90) days after a formal notification is sent.
5. Materials not accepted for donation should be claimed by the owner or authorized agent within ninety (90) days after notification by the department. If after termination of the deposit date noted above, the ADAH reserves the right to return any declined materials by mail to the owner’s mailing address on file, at the owner’s risk. If material cannot be returned by mail, the ADAH will attempt to contact the owner pursing all possible means of contact and in accordance with any legal requirements. If the owner refuses to accept the return of items held in temporary custody, it shall be deemed Abandoned Property, and the ADAH will institute termination of loan procedures as outlined in Ala. Code § 41-6-73.

I will notify the ADAH in writing of any change of ownership, address, or contact information.

☐ I have read and understand the above terms and conditions.
