

2021 Alabama History Institutes: Grades 3-6

Montgomery: A City of History

Alabama Department of Archives and History, Montgomery

June 28-June 30, 2021

Traneshia Birch, Andalusia City Schools
Alanna Bradley, Autauga County Schools

Surrounded by history, the city of Montgomery offers endless amounts of topics to explore. From the Civil Rights Movements to historic landmarks and events to prominent, civil rights leaders and other historic legends, there's so much to learn about the city of Montgomery. Come join us to delve deep into Montgomery's rich history! Participants will have the opportunity to enjoy field trips visiting historic landmarks, museums, and memorials. In addition to field trips, participants will learn oral stories from guest speakers. If you don't teach history, don't worry! Participants will learn ways to incorporate history into other subject areas through the use of primary source documents and other educational activities. You will leave this workshop with new and better knowledge of our state's capital along with numerous resources for you to take back with you to use in your own classroom. Come and join us to learn more about our notable state capital and leave with a new outlook on a part of Alabama history!
