Participants in this workshop will explore new approaches to keeping history relevant in the elementary classroom. While ensuring the workshop aligns with statewide literacy requirements, presenters will offer a fresh look at strategies and provide ideas for inspiring fluent readers using historical concepts and exploration. Resources provided at this workshop will elevate educators’ toolkit to not only fulfill requirements but enrich students’ awareness of the past.

Questions?
Marlena Cameron, ADAH Education Curator
(334) 353-9155 or
marlena.cameron@archives.alabama.gov